MEMORANDUM ACCOMPANYING FINDINGS OF FACT, CONCLUSION OF LAW, CERTIFICATION OF RESULTS OF INVESTIGATION AND ORDER INITIATING FACT FINDING AND APPOINTING FACT FINDER

The instant petition set forth the bargaining unit involved consisted of "all officers of the Green Bay Police Department, excluding the Chief of Police and Deputy Chiefs." The Municipal Employer initially contended that captains, lieutenants and some sergeants were supervisors and therefore not entitled to fact finding. Subsequently, the parties agreed that captains and lieutenants should be excluded from the bargaining unit. The Municipal Employer also agreed to withdraw, for the purposes of fact finding, its allegation with respect to the supervisory status of sergeants. It also stated that this withdrawal did not constitute a waiver of its right to assert the supervisory status of sergeants in a future proceeding separate from the fact finding proceeding.

The parties further agreed that the unit for which fact finding should be initiated is described as "all full-time police personnel having powers of arrest employed by the City of Green Bay Police Department, excluding the police chief, deputy chiefs, captains and lieutenants." Additionally, we are persuaded that the parties are deadlocked after a reasonable period of negotiation. Accordingly, we are today issuing an order initiating fact finding and appointing a fact finder in the dispute.

Dated at Madison, Wisconsin, this 8th day of December, 1969.
